In the 18th century, under the reign of King Tu Duc, the mountain became a prominent pilgrimage site for Vietnamese Buddhists. Reach the summit, you will discover the architectural marvel of Linh Son Truong Tho Pagoda, which offers breathtaking panoramic views of the city.

Continue your exploration of Phan Thiet with a unique immersion into the heart of its culinary traditions. At 1000hrs, step into the fascinating Fish Sauce Museum, where this essential Vietnamese condiment's pungent yet captivating aroma fills the air. Unravel the centuries-old production methods and the profound cultural significance of fish sauce. Learn about its role in shaping Vietnamese cuisine and understand why it's considered the soul of countless dishes.

DAY 2

PHAN THIET

At around noon, savor the flavors you've just discovered during a leisurely lunch at an oceanfront restaurant. Delight in a selection of local specialties where the distinct taste of the sea shines through, expertly paired with fresh ingredients and regional culinary flair.

After lunch, journey to the historic Poshanu Cham Towers, perched gracefully atop a hill overlooking Phan Thiet. Built by the ancient Cham civilization, these timeless structures stand as silent witnesses to centuries of history, spirituality, and architectural mastery. Amidst the soft breeze and ancient stones, you can feel the lingering soul of a lost kingdom. As the afternoon light softens, the train departs Phan Thiet, gliding northward through a landscape painted in golden hues. As night falls, retreat to the elegance of your private carriage and enjoy a refined onboard dinner, where curated Vietnamese and international flavors accompany the quiet beauty of the passing coastline, promising new horizons ahead.

PHU YEN

After a peaceful breakfast aboard the train, the day's exploration begins in the quiet heart of Phu Yen — a province where simplicity, tradition, and natural beauty converge. Your first stop is Mang Lang Church, a stunning relic of Gothic architecture that has stood gracefully for over a century. Beneath its soaring spires and weathered stone facade, the church whispers stories of faith, endurance, and the meeting of East and West. Here, in the stillness of the morning, you feel the gentle weight of history lingering in the breeze.

From there, continue the journey to Phu Tan Mat Weaving Village, where generations of artisans have perfected the age-old craft of weaving mats from rush grass. As you wander through the village, observe the skilled hands at work, weaving colorful threads into practical yet beautiful creations. The scent of sun-dried grass fills the air, and the steady, rhythmic sound of the looms becomes an unexpected melody of rural life. It's not just a visit; it's a step into a living tradition — an invitation to slow down, to witness the artistry of hands guided by time and heart.

PHU YEN

As midday approaches, return to the coast and in the shaded calm of a local restaurant, savor a lunch that is both humble and elegant. Spend the afternoon unwinding with the rejuvenating embrace of the ocean. Relax, refresh, and let the beauty of Phu Yen's beaches restore your spirit before returning to the train. After a fulfilling meal, the afternoon invites you back to the train for a time of rest and reflection. Settle into your cabin, perhaps with a book in hand, or simply gaze through the wide windows as Phu Yen's countryside gently recedes — rolling fields, distant mountains, and narrow village roads weaving together a final tapestry of the land you leave behind.

As twilight deepens into night, the dining car beckons. Here, amidst the glow of soft lighting and the clinking of glasses, a beautifully curated dinner awaits. Each course is crafted to complement the day's experiences — elegant yet unpretentious, much like Phu Yen itself. Outside, the world passes by in a quiet blur; inside, the evening unfolds with the warmth of new friendships and the lingering sweetness of a day spent close to the heart of Vietnam.

4D3N A Hoi An Escape

Stepping into this escape is like drifting through a living watercolor, where the mustard-yellow corridors of Hoi An's Ancient Town melt into a twilight illuminated by hundreds of silk lanterns casting shimmering ripples upon the Thu Bon River. The gentle hum of the old trading port softens as you venture further inland, trading the nostalgic, wooden architecture for the emerald stillness of the surrounding valley. There, cradled by lush, mist-shrouded hills, lie the sacred ruins of My Son Sanctuary—a spiritual threshold where the weathered, red-brick towers of the ancient Champa Kingdom stand wrapped in banyan roots and timeless silence. To journey here is to traverse a seamless continuum of heritage, moving from the vibrant, coastal poetry of Hoi An's historic streets straight into the profound, enigmatic soul of an empire carved in stone.

The journey continues through small hamlets and wide rice paddies, creating a cinematic portrait of local life. Thereafter, we will arrive at the UNESCO World Heritage-listed site of My Son. Set in a lush valley, these red brick towers date back to the 7th century. Your guide will lead you through the ruins, explaining the spiritual significance of the Champa civilization. One of Vietnam's most impressive ancient Cham complexes, we will have the opportunity to discover the temple ruins that were once meticulously built, with intricate and unique carvings.
